

NYCCT Sing Along

No, No, No! from The Amazing Adventures of Harvey and the Princess

I'm the only Princess on Pink Mountain Island, but still I can't find anything to do.
If you were almost six years old, and all your toys were just no fun, I believe that you'd be angry too!

But maybe this time I'll find something, something that I want.

No, no, no! I don't like it. No, no, no! I don't want it. This is not okay.
No, no, no! Not this one. No, no, no! Not that one. Take these toys away.
Take them away!

My father is the king, the one who buys me all these things.
He says they're fun, but I just don't agree.
My mother is the Queen, she's got her schedule and routines, where she makes room for everyone but me.
So I hope this time I'll get something, something that I want.

No, no, no! I don't like it. No, no, no! I don't want it. This is not okay.
No, no, no! Not this one. No, no, no! Not that one. Take these toys away.
Take them away!

All I really want is to have what I want. But what do I really, really want?
All I really want is to have what I want. But what do I really, really want?
All I really want is to have what I want, and I really want things to change around here!

Cause I don't like it. I don't want it.
Come on, listen to what I say
No, no, no! It's the wrong thing.
No, no, no! It's never the right thing!
Take these toys away!
Just take them away

